

Applicant: Gravett, et al.

"Clickable" areas i.e., "button-like" areas protruding from the sides of the icon. When clicked, additional information about the object is displayed for viewing or editing.

Base shape (rectangular, circular, etc.) to mimic the physical nature of the object represented.

"Hot spot" for unstacking the DTO (see example below)

Visual content/status area: updates with photo or graphic of object and/or status information.

Badge area: basic name, type and/or description of object's reference

Examples of DTOs with additional graphical information

FIG. 2A

FIG. 2B

